

When the Seventh-day Adventist Church purchased the hotel and 76 acres with the hill known as Loma Linda Spanish for "beautiful hill" in 1955 administrators immediately began to remodel their purchase for the purpose of medical care here